History

Victory in Europe Day

Victory in Europe Day is usually called VE Day.

What Is VE Day?

- VE Day is a day to remember the end of the Second World War.
- It is a day to remember the bravery of those who lived during the war.
- It is a day to remember the soldiers who were in the war.

How Did People Celebrate the First VE Day?

People travelled to London for parades, dancing and singing. The centre of London was filled with people wearing red, white and blue and waving flags. There were street parties all over the country. Fireworks filled the sky with flashes of light. Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret even slipped out of Buckingham Palace to join in with the celebrations in London!

Time to Celebrate

- VE Day is always on May 8th.
- On May 7th 1945, Germany surrendered the war.
- People celebrated with street parties.
- People wore red, white and blue – the colours of the British flag.
- People waved flags.

Glossary

celebrate – to do something special for a special occasion

surrender – to agree to stop fighting
